ONLINE REGISTRATION FOR SELECTION

1. Register on the online portal Alice (www.studenti.unipi.it)

   To register, you must enter your personal data when requested during the procedure. Follow the instructions and at the end of the procedure you will receive a user name and you will have to choose a password. As well as entering your personal data, in order to be registered for the admission exam you must go into your personal area and click on ‘Enrolment for Admission Exams’.

   Start the registration

   If you already are a student of the University of Pisa you must access the Alice portal using the user name and password you normally use for online services at the University of Pisa, and click on ‘Enrolment for Admission Exams’.

2. Select the admission test

   You can enrol immediately after having completed the registration process: in which case you only need to follow the instructions provided at the final phase of registration. If you would like to enrol at another time, you must enter the Alice Portal using the username and password provided at the end of registration and choose the menu item “Segreteria” and then “Iscrizione concorsi”

   Please note that you can register to the selection until 12.00 am of the 12th September 2019.

3. Take the TOLC-F test

   Register for the TOLC-F test and sit the test on the day and at the time selected, following the procedure and calendar published on the CISIA website, before 00:00 pm of the 9th of September 2019.

   Remember that you can take it several times (maximum once per calendar month). In case of more than one TOLC-F tests taken, the one with the highest score will be taken into consideration.
